

Hundreds pay their respects to PC Beshenivsky

A horse-drawn hearse moved through the streets of Bradford as passers-by and police colleagues bowed their heads in honour of PC Sharon Beshenivsky.

Hundreds paid their respects to the memory of PC Beshenivsky at the funeral held on January 11 at Bradford Cathedral. Colleagues joined her friends and family at the service and Colin Cramphorn, chief constable of West Yorkshire Police, paid tribute to the officer.

'You see, she saw her role as a police officer in terms of making a difference. The sort of difference that would make this city a better place for her family, her friends, her community. And she did make a difference and Bradford is a better place thanks to the efforts of Police Constable 6410 Sharon Beshenivsky.'

