

Police Federation Bravery Awards 2009 - celebrating the courage of police officers

Top: Prime Minister, Gordon Brown, addresses all the bravery award nominees Bottom: All of the 2009 bravery award nominees join the Prime Minister, his wife Sarah Brown and Home Secretary, Alan Johnson, for a photo in the garden at 10 Downing Street

Peter Anderson Photography

Above: Prime Minister's wife Sarah Brown presents the overall winner Police Bravery Award 2009 to Sgt Stephen Hayter, PC Barry Leban, PC Richard Cousins and PC Michael Carroll from the Metropolitan Police
 Right: EastEnders Kara Tointon and chat show host Jeremy Kyle Keates present the Midlands award to Sgt Richard Jacques and Sgt Jonathan Keates from the West Midlands Police

Top: Dando Award winner, John Farley, accepts the Jill Dando rose award from presenter Nick Ross and actress Suranne Jones

Centre: TV news journalists Kate Silverton and Dermot Murnaghan present the welsh regional award to Gwent's Sgt Mike Pheasant, PC Scott Thomas and PC Simon Rohman

Top left: The One Show's Adrian Chiles and Christine Bleakley with the south west winners, Wiltshire's PC Ciaran Magee, PC Michael Mansell and PC Neil Sampson, sporting the new beanie presented to him to replace the one ruined during a violent attack on him Top right: The Bill's Lucy Speed, Alex Walkinshaw and Graham Cole present the south-east regional award to PC Arron Worbey from Hertfordshire Police Centre: Compere Mark Durden-Smith interviews the east midlands winners, PC Gary Wilsdon and Sgt Mark Southgate from Nottinghamshire Police as Trial and Retribution actress Victroia Smurfit and GMTV's John Stapleton look on

Bottom left: Sun newspaper columnist Jon Gaunt and presenter Konnie Huq present the north-east winners award to PC Gareth Walker and PC Allan Cowley from Humberside Police Bottom right: Bravery awards compere, Mark Durden-Smith looks on as Hertfordshire PC Martin Matthews thanks Dando award winner, John Farley, for saving his life by pulling him from a burning police car