

Federation House

Martyn Mordecai, deputy treasurer of the Police Federation

Federation House is home to the Police Federation of England and Wales. The state-of-the-art facility includes hotel accommodation and was purpose built, specifically for you - all serving police officers, retired officers and their families as well as organisations that work alongside us. The building itself incorporates modern architecture with contemporary design and high-tech facilities. It is the ideal location for business and leisure.

It is just a 45-minute journey from the sights of central London with plenty to do locally, including Chessington World of Adventures, Twickenham rugby club and Hampton Court which hosts the flower show. The training and conference facilities are second to none. So whether you're organising or attending a training course or meeting, Federation House should be your first port of call.

There are over 50 bedrooms, designed with a sense of luxury and relaxation so you can enjoy a great night's sleep, and wake up refreshed and rejuvenated. All bedrooms are well-equipped; features include state-of-the-art LCD televisions, climate control, safe deposit boxes and wireless internet access.

Exclusive accommodation rates are available to you, making it perfect for weekend breaks.

If you'd rather stay and make full use of the facilities, there is a fantastic a la carte menu, bar meals and a subsidised terrace bar. Why not sit and relax, whilst watching the sport?

If you're feeling energetic, you could use the well-equipped gym, followed by a relaxing swim.

You're welcome anytime, pay us a visit, you will be impressed!
