Responding to the terrible news of the tragic death of PC Bill Barker from Cumbria Police Paul McKeever, Chairman of the Police Federation of England and Wales, says:

“This is a terrible tragedy and our thoughts and prayers are with PC Barker’s family, friends and colleagues at this extremely sad time. Constable Bill Barker was a dedicated professional officer who was doing his utmost to help his local community in the face of a natural disaster and he has paid the ultimate price for his bravery and selfless actions. No words can help those closest to PC Barker at this terribly distressing time but I hope they will find some comfort that the loss of this brave man is mourned by the entire police family throughout the UK.”
