

Trading Standards Powers to issue FPN's in Nottinghamshire
25.05.07

Alan Gordon, Vice Chairman of the Police Federation of England and Wales:

“It makes perfect sense for trading standards officers to have the power to issue fixed penalty notices for offences such as underage alcohol sales. It is a natural progression of their work in tackling these problems with the added bonus in serving to free up police officers time.