

National Police Memorial Day

Hundreds of relatives, friends and colleagues of fallen police officers gathered to honour their memory at the fifth National Police Memorial Day.

The annual event, held at the Liverpool Anglican Cathedral on September 28, saw more than 1,500 people come together to honour the courage of those who died while on duty.

Photography: Anderson Photography

