POLICE
Federation

National Roads Policing Conference & Exhibition

20-21 January 2010, Hinckley Island Hotel, Leicestershire

This year sees the third Police Federation/ACPO National Roads Policing Conference.

The theme of the event will be 'Traffic Policing Beyond 2010' and this year the conference will include speakers from the police service and organisations outside of the police arena.

The event will offer delegates the opportunity to gain valuable information on the latest strategic and tactical options affecting modern roads policing, including Terrorism, Driver Behaviour, ANPR and Drug Driving. There will also be the opportunity to reflect on the Road Policing Strategy and discuss 'what does the future hold?'

The conference will be of interest to roads policing strategists, tacticians, road safety professionals, partner organisations and those who develop and manufacture enforcement equipment used by the police.
