

Sussex Police Chaplaincy

The Chaplaincy is currently comprised of various Christian Ministers (mostly Church of England).

We aim to be a friend to all, and a judge of none.

We are available to all Sussex Police Staff, whether they have a faith or not.

We are not paid by Sussex Police, although some of us claim travel expenses etc

We can provide a confidential and independent listening ear, can signpost other sources of help if needed, and will stand with you and yours in times of crisis if you wish.

We will not try to convert you. Your faith (or lack of it) is your own business, not ours.
