

PC Sharon Beshenivsky - Memorial Service

Photography: West Yorkshire Police

PC Sharon Beshenivsky

A memorial stone has been laid in Bradford city centre in memory of PC Sharon Beshenivsky, a year after the West Yorkshire officer was shot and killed during an armed robbery on November 18 last year. Her family, colleagues and friends gathered together at the memorial ceremony to honour her memory.

Photography: Emptics

PC Teresa Milburn is consoled by two colleagues at the memorial service

PC Teresa Milburn and Paul Beshenivsky, husband of the late PC Sharon Beshenivsky

“A year ago PC Beshenivsky was shot while in the process of carrying out her ordinary duties - an event which devastated the lives of those around her and many more throughout the city. We meet today to honour her memory and the way that in death, as in her life, she has inspired others.”

The Dean of Bradford, the Right Reverend David Ison, who led the service

Photography: Ross Parry

