Dear Loïc,

I am writing to express my heartfelt sympathy following the murder of four police officers at the Paris Headquarters today. The impact of such a horrific attack has been felt far and wide.

My thoughts are with those officers killed and injured, their families and their colleagues. Policing in the United Kingdom stands with you in your time of need; as police officers we are a police family, no matter where in the world we may be.

On behalf of the Police Federation of England and Wales and all our members please accept our deepest sympathies. You are all in our thoughts.

Yours sincerely,

John Apter
National Chair
