

In these uncertain times, put your family first

Not made your will?

- Did you know, young children could go into care!
- Children from a previous marriage may not inherit anything!
- People living together may not be entitled to any part of each others estate!
- Protect your estate from care-home fees and inheritance tax!
- Put a Lasting Power of Attorney in place in case you lose your mental or physical abilities to deal with your finances or make health decisions
- Funeral costs have increased by 125% over the last 15 years – pay for your funeral now and guarantee there are no price increases in the future and make it easier for your loved ones

Give me a call today for advice or appointments at a time to suit you, during the day, of an evening or a Saturday

I am a Qualified Willwriter and a member of the Institute of Professional Willwriters. You don't need a Solicitor to write your Will!
