

PFNDF Annual Awards 2019

Detective Investigation of the year

To be awarded to an individual, or team of Detective officers. That in the judgement of the PFNDF, have demonstrated an outstanding ability in the field of detective work within a particular investigation, whilst having displayed the highest standards of a detective officer's skills and abilities. (Any Detective investigation in England or Wales is eligible to be nominated for this award at the conclusion of the case so that appropriate details may be publicised and therefore will only be eligible for inclusion for the year following the case conclusion.)

Services to Detectives

To be awarded to an individual, group or organisation. That in the judgement of the PFNDF, have demonstrated a continuous support for the role of the Detective within policing of England and Wales. Through this support they have shown their commitment to encouraging the retention, development and/or welfare of warranted Detective officers.

New Trainee Detective Constable of the Year

To be awarded to the detective constable who are is currently within their trainee investigation programme (PIP2).

The award criteria is to recognise significant personal development, resilience, tenacity, public service and outstanding investigation(s) of a new or recently qualified detective constable.

The Smarter Detective Award

This award is for detectives/teams of detectives whose work has provided an outstanding contribution to an investigation or public safety/reassurance having made significant use of technology, new policing tactics, intelligence. (For a team nomination the majority of nominees must be warranted detectives.)

These awards have been created by the PFNDF to recognise the fundamental role of the Detective within policing in England and Wales and to acknowledge those that perform and demonstrate the best qualities of the Detective and/or support the role through their committed efforts.

These awards shall be open for nomination between Friday 1 March 2019 and Friday 31 May 2019 inclusive. Nominations can be made by any member of a police force within England and Wales. A nomination should include details of the nominated party(s) and the evidence that meets the criteria for the particular award simply on our two page A4 application form.

Following this the executive of the PFNDF shall judge the nominations to select three in each category for forwarding to the final stages. The executive members shall examine, discuss and judge the nominations from each of the eight regions to select a winner in each category. The winning nominations shall then be notified and invited to attend the PFNDF annual seminar and awards dinner later this year to receive the award as our guests. Where the award has been given to a group, team or organisation then a maximum of two persons shall be invited to receive the award on behalf of the group, team or organisation.

The winning nomination for Detective Investigation of the Year will also be invited to present the details of the case in question to the PFNDF seminar, should they wish to do so.

The judgement of the PFNDF regional and executive representatives in selecting the recipients shall be final and not open to further challenge.

All applications once approved through your force should be submitted to Tkay Shana at Police Federation of England and Wales, Federation House, Highbury Drive, Leatherhead, Surrey, KT22 7UY or via email to awards@polfed.org