*JOIN US TO HONOUR AND REMEMBER
POLICE OFFICERS WHO HAVE DIED OR BEEN KILLED ON DUTY IN NORTHERN IRELAND, ENGLAND,
SCOTLAND, AND WALES*

We are delighted to announce that you can now register to attend National Police Memorial Day 2022, taking place in the beautiful city of Belfast, on Sunday 25th September at 2pm.

National Police Memorial Day is always a special occasion, and even more so following a two-year hiatus of not being able to sit together as a full congregation.

Many friendships have been forged since this special day of remembrance started in 2004, with families coming year-on-year, supporting each other to honour and pay tribute to our fallen police officers who gave their all to protect us.

This newsletter provides more information on plans for this year and importantly, how to register.

I hope you find this useful and I look forward to seeing you in Belfast.

ILLUMINATION FOR FALLEN OFFICERS

The Royal Ulster Constabulary George Cross Garden provides a major tribute to policing in Ireland. It marks the service and sacrifice of RUC officers and offers a unique experience unparalleled anywhere in the world.

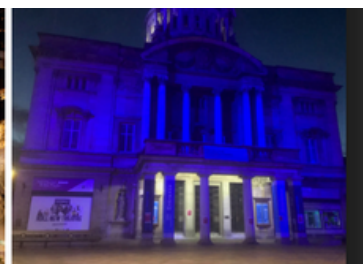

In the weekend of National Police Memorial Day, we will be organising tours of the RUC GC Gardens. We will be arranging a bus shuttle service to the Garden, from Belfast city centre (exact location will be confirmed one week before). Bus bookings can be made via the registration process at <https://nationalpolicememorialday.org/>.

The following tour group options will be available.

Group	Departure from city/arrival at RUC GC Garden	Departure from RUC GC Garden
1	9/9.30am - tea & tour	11.15am
2	10.15/10.45am - tea & tour	12.30pm
3	12/12.30pm - tea & tour	2.15pm
4	1.30/2pm - tea & tour	3.45pm
5	3pm/3.30pm	5.15pm

1	9/9.30am - tea & tour	11.15am
2	10.15/10.45am - tea & tour	12.30pm

Following on from the wealth of support last year, civic buildings throughout Northern Ireland, England, Scotland, and Wales will again be illuminated blue on the eve of NPMD, providing a powerful and stunning dedication to our fallen police officers.

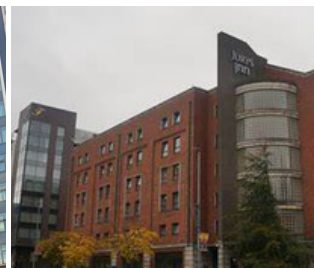

REGISTER NOW FOR SUNDAY'S SERVICE AT BELFAST'S WATERFRONT HALL

This year's National Police Memorial Day service will take place at 2pm on Sunday 25th September 2022, and we are delighted that Belfast's Waterfront Hall is hosting the service.
