AIR PASSENGERS – KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

It's often difficult to know who might be responsible for cancelled or delayed flights so travellers need to be aware of the European Union (EU) regulations that protect your right to being treated fairly as an air passenger.

All airlines departing from an airport in an EU member state have responsibilities to assist their passengers if their flight is cancelled or delayed and in certain circumstances are obliged to pay you compensation. Airlines are also responsible for loss or damage to your baggage during carriage.

The following information may assist you. However for the latest advice and further details on your rights as an airline passenger and compensation in different situations please visit the UK Civil Aviation Authority website at www.caa.co.uk. You should also refer to the terms and conditions of the airline you are travelling with. We are not responsible for the content of other websites.

My flight has been cancelled

If you get to the airport in the UK and find your flight has been cancelled the airline responsible should offer you a choice of the following:

- A refund within seven days of the full cost of the unused ticket, or
- Re-routing to your final destination at the earliest opportunity, or
- Re-routing to your final destination at a later date convenient to you.
- In reasonable relation to waiting time the airline should also offer you:
- Free meals and refreshments
- Hotel accommodation and transfers should you have to stay overnight
- Two free phone calls, faxes or e-mails.

In certain circumstances you may also be entitled to compensation.

My flight has been delayed

If your flight from the UK has been delayed you have a statutory right to meals and refreshments, help with contacting family or friends and overnight accommodation where applicable:

- Meals and refreshments appropriate to delay, two free calls, faxes or emails for:
- Any delay over four hours
- Delays over three hours for flights over 932 miles within the EU
- Delays over two hours for flights up to 932 miles.
- Refund of your ticket if you decide not to travel when your flight has been delayed for over five hours.
- Hotel accommodation and transfers if your flight is not expected to leave until the next day.

My baggage has been lost, damaged or delayed by an airline

Your airline has a responsibility to you as follows: (Where possible it's best to report any problems before you leave the airport).

- The airline will be liable if your baggage is destroyed, lost or damaged during carriage so long as they agreed to carry the items at check-in and you can provide receipts for them.
- The amount you can claim is limited by the Montreal Convention, and the airline will decide on the amount following assessment of your claim.
- It is important that you obtain a Property Irregularity Report from the airline or agent as you will need this to prove your loss when making your claim to the airline. Ideally you should obtain this before leaving the airport.
- A claim to the airline must be submitted within seven days for damaged baggage and within 21 days for delayed baggage.
- The Montreal Convention requires airlines to treat a bag as lost after 21 days so you should make your claim as soon as possible if your baggage is still missing after this time.
