Claims procedure

Telling us about your claim
1) If a beneficiary needs to make a claim, they must notify us during the period of insurance and as soon as they become aware of circumstances which could give rise to a claim.
2) If a beneficiary instructs their own solicitor or accountant without telling us, they will be liable for costs that are not covered by this policy.
3) A claim form can be downloaded at www.arag.co.uk/newclaims or requested by telephoning us on 0330 303 1955 between 9am and 5pm weekdays (except bank holidays).
4) The completed claim form and supporting documentation can be sent to us by email, post or fax.

What happens next?
1) We will send the beneficiary a written acknowledgment by the end of the next working day after receiving their claim form.
2) Within five working days of receiving all the information needed to assess the availability of cover under the policy, we will write to the beneficiary either:
   a) confirming cover under the terms of this policy and advising the beneficiary of the next steps to progress their claim; or
   b) if the claim is not covered, we will explain in full the reason why and advise whether we can assist in another way.
3) When a representative is appointed they will try to resolve the beneficiary’s dispute without delay, arranging mediation whenever appropriate.
4) We will check on the progress of the beneficiary’s claim with the appointed advisor from time to time.

Sometimes matters cannot be resolved quickly, particularly if the other side is slow to cooperate or a legal timetable is decided by the courts.

Policy Conditions

Where the insurer’s risk is affected by the beneficiary’s failure to keep to these conditions the insurer can cancel your policy, refuse a claim or withdraw from an ongoing claim. The insurer also reserves the right to recover legal costs and expenses from the beneficiary if this happens.

1. Your Responsibilities A beneficiary must:
   a) tell ARAG immediately of anything that may make it more costly or difficult for the appointed advisor to resolve the claim in the beneficiary’s favour
   b) cooperate fully with us, give the appointed advisor any instructions we require, and keep them updated with the progress of the claim and not hinder them
   c) take reasonable steps to claim back legal costs and expenses and, where recovered, pay them to the insurer
   d) keep legal costs and expenses as low as possible
   e) allow the insurer at any time to take over any claim and conduct in the beneficiary’s name, any claim.

2. Freedom to choose an appointed advisor
   a) In certain circumstances as set out in 2b) below the beneficiary may choose an appointed advisor. In all other cases no right exists and we shall choose the appointed advisor.
   b) If
      i) a suitably qualified advisor considers that it has become necessary to issue proceedings or proceedings are issued against a beneficiary, or
      ii) there is a conflict of interest the beneficiary may choose a qualified appointed advisor.
   c) Where the beneficiary wishes to exercise the right to choose, the beneficiary must write to ARAG with their preferred representative’s contact details and cost. Where the beneficiary chooses to use their preferred representative, the insurer will not pay more than we agree to pay a solicitor from our panel. (Our panel solicitor firms are chosen with care and we agree special terms with them which may be less than the rates available from other firms.)
   d) If the beneficiary dismisses the appointed advisor without good reason, or withdraws from the claim without our written agreement, or if the appointed advisor refuses with good reason to continue acting for the beneficiary, the insurer’s liability in respect of that claim will end immediately.
   e) In respect of a claim under Insured Events 10 Personal Injury, 11 Clinical Negligence, 12 Contract, 15 Employment, or 17 Uninsured Loss Recovery, the beneficiary must enter into a conditional fee agreement (unless the appointed advisor has entered into a collective conditional fee agreement), where legally permitted.

3. Consent
   a) The beneficiary must agree to us having sight of the appointed advisor’s file relating to the beneficiary’s claim. The beneficiary is considered to have provided consent to us or our appointed agent to have sight of their file for auditing and quality control purposes.
   b) A beneficiary must have your agreement to claim under your policy.

4. Settlement
   a) The insurer can settle the claim by paying the reasonable value of the beneficiary’s claim.
   b) The beneficiary must not negotiate or settle the claim without our written agreement.
   c) If the beneficiary refuses to settle the claim following advice to do so from the appointed advisor, the insurer reserves the right to refuse to pay further costs.
   d) The beneficiary must settle costs arising from Insured Event 18 Identity Theft in the first instance and make a receipted claim to us for reimbursement.
5. Barrister’s opinion
   We may require the beneficiary to obtain and pay for an opinion from a barrister if a dispute arises regarding the merits or value of the claim. If the opinion supports the beneficiary, then the insurer will reimburse the reasonable costs of that opinion. If that opinion conflicts with advice obtained by us, then the insurer will pay for a final opinion which will be binding on the beneficiary and us. This does not affect the beneficiary’s right in the Disputes Condition below.

6. Disputes
   If any dispute between the beneficiary and us arises from your policy, the beneficiary can make a complaint to us as described under the Complaints Procedure of this policy and we will try to resolve the matter. If we are unable to satisfy the beneficiary’s concerns the beneficiary can ask the Financial Ombudsman Service to arbitrate over the complaint.

7. Other insurance
   The insurer will not pay more than their fair share (rateable proportion) for any claim covered by another policy, or any claim that would have been covered by any other policy if this policy did not exist.

8. Fraudulent claims and claims tainted by dishonesty
   a) If a beneficiary makes any claim which is fraudulent or false, this policy may become void and all benefit under it may be lost.
   b) A beneficiary shall at all times be entirely truthful and open in any evidence, disclosure or statement they give and shall act with complete honesty and integrity throughout. Where, on the balance of probabilities and having considered carefully all the facts of the claim, it appears that the beneficiary has breached this condition and that the breach has:
      i) affected our assessment of reasonable prospects of success, and/or
      ii) prejudiced any part the outcome of the beneficiary’s claim the insurer shall have no liability for legal costs and expenses incurred from the date of the beneficiary’s breach.

9. Cancellation
   a) You may cancel the policy within 14 days of the date of the purchase of this policy with a full refund of the premium paid provided that a beneficiary has not made a claim which has been accepted.
   b) You may cancel this policy at any time by giving at least 21 days’ written notice to us. The insurer will refund the premium for the remaining period of insurance unless a beneficiary has notified a claim which has been or is subsequently accepted under this policy in which case no return of premium shall be allowed.
   c) Where there is a valid reason for doing so, the insurer has the right to cancel the policy at any time by giving at least 21 days’ written notice to you. The insurer will refund the premium for the remaining period of insurance. We will set out the reason for cancellation in writing. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:
      i) where the party claiming under this policy fails to cooperate with or provide information to us or the insurer’s interests
      ii) where the party claiming under this policy uses threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or intimidates or bullies our staff or suppliers iii) where we reasonably suspect fraud. The insurer also reserves the right to withdraw from any claim in the circumstances noted in 9 c).

10. Acts of Parliament
