- i) Where this determination applies to a member of a police force, the police pension authority may impose such further qualifications for receipt of a Compensation Lump Sum as it thinks fit.
- j) A Compensation Lump Sum under this determination is paid at the discretion of the police pension authority and nothing in this determination extends or is to be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to such a payment.
- k) In this determination-
- i. "the relevant date" is the date determined by the police pension authority in relation to the application of voluntary retirement terms;
 - ii. "Pay" has the meaning set out in paragraph (3);
 - iii. "police pension authority" has the meaning set out in section 11(2) of the Police Pensions Act 1976, but where the member in question is the Chief Officer of Police, references to the police pension authority have effect as references to the pension supervising authority, within the meaning of that section;
 - iv. "Service" has the meaning set out in paragraph (4).

2) AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION LUMP SUM

- a) If this determination applies to a member of a police force, the police pension authority may offer the member a Compensation Lump Sum equal to the Compensation Tariff applicable to the member.
- b) The Compensation Tariff applicable to a member is the lesser of-
 - i. an amount calculated by multiplying one-twelfth of the member's Pay by the length of the member's Reckonable Service in years (up to and including the last day of such Reckonable Service); and
 - ii. the Voluntary Departure Maximum.
- c) If the amount that would be calculated under section 162 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, if the member was an employee with a right to a redundancy payment under section 135 of that Act, is greater than the Compensation Lump Sum determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (a), the Compensation Lump Sum must be increased to that amount.

3) PAY

- a) "Pay" in relation to a member of a police force means the member's pay calculated in accordance with Annex F, as at the last day of Reckonable Service (this is subject to sub-paragraphs (b) to (d)).
- b) If, on the last day of Reckonable Service, the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (c) below apply, and as a result the member is not receiving Pay of an amount equal to that which the member would have received if those circumstances did not apply, the member is to be treated as receiving or as having received Pay of such an amount, and this amount is referred to as "Assumed Pay".
- c) The circumstances are that the member is-
 - i. on relevant service within the meaning of section 97(1) of the Police Act 1996;
 - ii. on sick leave under Annex P;
 - iii. on a career break under Annex OO;
 - iv. on maternity leave under Annex R;
 - v. on maternity support leave, parental leave, adoption leave or adoption support leave under Annex S;
 - vi. absent from duty because of being called out or recalled for permanent service in the reserve forces or the regular forces in pursuance of a call-out order made under the Reserve Forces Act 1980 or under an Order in Council made on 18th May 1982; or
 - vii. receiving pay at a reduced rate where the member is entitled to pension benefits under an occupational pension scheme other than under the Police Pensions Regulations or to a payment under this determination in respect of an earlier period of service.
- d) If the member is in part-time service on the last day of Reckonable Service, the member's Pay will be calculated as if the member received the full-time rate at that time.

- e) Where the member's Pay is more than the Deemed Maximum for the time being, the member's Pay will, for the purpose of calculating the member's lump sum under paragraph (2), be taken to be the Deemed maximum.
- f) The Deemed Maximum is six times the figure for median gross annual full-time private sector pay, as provided by the Office for National Statistics in the most recent Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings.

4) SERVICE AND RECKONABLE SERVICE

- a) "Service" in relation to a member of a police force means the current period of continuous service as a member of a police force, including any period of that service during which the member is treated as having received Assumed Pay and any other period of unpaid leave (this is subject to sub-paragraphs (d) and (e) below).
- b) Transfer from one police force to another does not result in a period of service coming to an end, and accordingly service before and after the transfer counts as a single period of continuous service.
- c) Any previous periods of service as a member of a police force which are not part of the current period of continuous service do not count towards the member's Service (this is subject to sub-paragraph (h)).
- d) The following periods do not count towards a member's Service but do not result in that period of service coming to an end-
 - i. any unauthorised absence; and
 - ii. any break in the member's Service which lasts no more than 28 days.
- e) The following periods do not count towards a member's Service-
 - i. any service which reckons under the Police Pensions Regulations which results from a credit of reckonable service pursuant to a transfer from another pension scheme (this is subject to sub-paragraph (h)); and
 - ii. any service which reckons under the Police Pensions Regulations attributable to a purchase of added years by the member.
- f) "Reckonable Service" in relation to a member of a police force has the same meaning as the member's Service except as provided for in sub-paragraphs (g) and (i).
- g) A period of unpaid leave does not count towards a member's Reckonable Service but does not result in that period of Reckonable Service coming to an end.
- h) If the Secretary of State consents, following a request from the police pension authority, all or any part of a period of service-
 - i. other than as a member of a police force; or
 - ii. as a member of a police force but prior to a period of service to which this determination applies,may count as a member's Service or Reckonable Service.

- i) If a member of a police force has been in part-time service at any time during the period referred to in sub-paragraph (f) above, the period of Reckonable Service in years in respect of each period during which the member has been in part-time service is calculated by dividing by 2087 the number of hours of the member's part-time service in the period in question, using the result to four decimal places.
- j) For the purposes of this determination, Service and Reckonable Service are, subject to sub-paragraph (m), to be expressed in complete years and days, with any part day to be rounded up to a full day.
- k) Where periods of part-time service calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (i) are to be expressed in complete years and days, they are first added together and the resulting number is then expressed in complete years and days, with any part day rounded up to a full day.
- l) Where Service or Reckonable Service are referred to in years, the days referred to in sub-paragraphs (j) and (k) are converted into years by dividing the number of days in excess of the period of whole years by 365, and using the result to four decimal places.
- m) If a period of Service or Reckonable Service is less than one year, this paragraph applies as if the words "complete years and", wherever they occur, were omitted from sub-paragraphs (j) and (k) and the words "in excess of the period of whole years" were omitted from sub-paragraph (l).

5) VOLUNTARY DEPARTURE MAXIMUM

- a) The Voluntary Departure Maximum in respect of a member of a police force is (subject to sub-paragraph (b))-
 - i. where the member is below Pension Age on the member's last day of Service, the lesser of-
 - 1. the amount calculated by multiplying one-twelfth of the member's Pay by 21; and
 - 2. the Tapering Maximum
 - ii. where the member is at or above Pension Age on the member's last day of Service, half of the member's Pay.
- b) If the member has been in part-time Service at any time during the last 3 years of the member's Reckonable Service, the Voluntary Departure Maximum in respect of the member is-
 - i. where the member is below Pension Age on the member's last day of Service, the lesser of-
 - 1. the amount calculated by multiplying one-twelfth of the member's Pay by A/B by 21;
 - 2. the amount calculated by multiplying one-twelfth of the member's Pay by the length of the member's Reckonable Service in years; and
 - 3. the Tapering Maximum;
 - ii. where the member is at or above Pension Age on the member's last day of Service, half of the member's Pay multiplied by A/B

- c) The Tapering Maximum in relation to a member of a police force is calculated by multiplying one-twelfth of the member's Pay by the Tapering Sum.
- d) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (c), the Tapering Sum is (subject to sub-paragraph (e)) 6 plus the number of months (rounded up or down to the nearest whole month in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State) starting on (and including) the day after the member's last day of Service and finishing on (and including) the day before the member reaches Pension Age.
- e) If the member is in part-time Service on the member's last day of Reckonable Service, the Tapering Sum is the number of months (rounded up or down to the nearest whole month in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State) starting on (and including) the day before the member reaches Pension Age plus the Part Time Tapering Sum rounded up or down to the nearest whole number in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State (this is subject to sub-paragraph (f)).
- f) Before being rounded up or down the number of months referred to in sub-paragraph (e) above shall first be multiplied by the appropriate factor then applicable to the member, within the meaning of paragraph (6)(b) of Annex E.
- g) The Part Time Tapering Sum is $6 \times (A/B)$.
- h) In this paragraph-
 - A is the length of the member's Reckonable Service in years; and
 - B is what would have been the length of the member's Reckonable Service in years if the member had worked full time throughout the period of the member's Service which reckons.
- i) In this paragraph "Pension Age" means the age at which the member is first entitled to receive payments on account of an ordinary pension under such Police Pensions Regulations as are applicable to the member.

6) RE-APPOINTMENT IN THE POLICE SERVICE

- a) No payment shall be made in respect of a Compensation Lump Sum unless the member of the police force agrees in writing to make a repayment in accordance with this paragraph in the circumstances set out in sub-paragraph (b).
- b) The circumstances are that-
 - i. a Compensation Lump Sum has been paid to the member under this determination, or the member has opted for it to be paid to buy out the member's pension reduction in accordance with the Police Pension Regulations;
 - ii. after the Compensation Lump Sum was paid, the member commences work as a member of a police force, or as a member of the civilian staff of a police force (including the metropolitan police force) within the meaning of section 102(4) and (6) of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011; and

- iii. the date on which the member commences work under sub-paragraph (ii) is-
1. before the last day of the member's Notional Severance Payment Period; and
 2. less than 6 months after the date on which the member left Service.
- c) A member's Notional Severance Payment Period is (subject to sub-paragraph (c)) the length of time, expressed as a decimal number of years, found by applying the following formula-
- $$C/D$$
- where-
- C is the amount of the Compensation Lump Sum paid to the member;
and
- D is the member's Pay by reference to which the sum was calculated.
- d) If the member was in part-time Service on the member's last day of Reckonable Service, the Notional Severance Payment Period calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (c) is divided by the appropriate factor then applicable to the member, within the meaning of paragraph (6)(b) of Annex E.
- e) The member must agree to repay, in the circumstances set out in sub-paragraph (b), an amount of the Compensation Lump Sum calculated in accordance with the formula set out in sub-paragraph (f) reduced, as necessary, in relation to sub-paragraph (f)(ii), in accordance with sub-paragraphs (g), (h) and (j).
- f) The amount that the member must agree to repay is-
- i. where the member commences work under sub-paragraph (b)(ii) less than 29 days after the date on which the member left Service on terms which qualified the member to receive the Compensation Lump Sum, the full amount of that Compensation Lump Sum;
 - ii. where the member commences work under sub-paragraph (b)(ii) 29 or more days after the date on which the member left Service on terms which qualified the member to receive the Compensation Lump Sum,
- $$E/F \times C$$
- where-
- E is the member's Notional Severance Payment Period less the time (in years and days, expressed as a decimal number of years) between the date of the member's leaving Service on terms which qualified the member to receive a Compensation Lump Sum and the date of the member's re-appointment;
- F is the member's Notional Severance Payment Period; and
- C is the amount of the Compensation Lump Sum.
- g) If the member agrees, the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (f)(ii) is reduced, in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State, to take into account the income tax paid by the member in relation to the Compensation Lump Sum.

- h) If the member's re-appointment pay as defined in sub-paragraph (i) is less than the member's Pay in relation to the Service which the member left on terms which qualified the member to receive the Compensation Lump Sum, the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (f)(ii) after applying sub-paragraph (g) where relevant, is reduced to an amount calculated in accordance with the following formula-

$$G/D \times H$$

where -

G is the member's re-appointment pay;

D is the member's Pay in relation to the Service which the member left on terms which qualified the member to receive the Compensation Lump Sum; and

H is the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (f)(ii) after applying sub-paragraph (g) where relevant.

- l) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (h), the re-appointment pay-
- i. of a member re-appointed as a member of a police force, is the member's Pay as defined in paragraph (3) except that it is as at the date of the member's re-appointment under sub-paragraph (b)(ii);
 - ii. of a member re-appointed as a member of civilian staff, is the member's annual rate of basic pay at the date.
- j) If the difference between the Compensation Lump Sum and the amount that the member agrees to repay after applying sub-paragraph (f)(ii) and, where relevant, sub-paragraphs (g) and (h), is less than the member's Statutory Redundancy Payment, then the amount that the member agrees to repay is reduced, or further reduced, so that the difference is equal to the member's Statutory Redundancy Payment.
- k) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (j), the member's Statutory Redundancy Payment is the amount that would be calculated under section 162 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 at the date when the member left Service on terms which qualified the member to receive the Compensation Lump Sum, if the member was an employee with a right to a redundancy payment under section 135 of that Act.

without prejudice, however, to the application of paragraph (1) to him by reason of service in another police force after his statutory transfer from the force first mentioned in this paragraph and before his statutory transfer to his present force.

(4) Paragraph (1) shall apply in the case of a member of a police force who ceased to be such and became a serviceman, a reversionary member of a home police force or a central police officer -

- (a) where on ceasing to be such, he resumed service in or, as the case may be, exercised his right of reversion to, his former force, as if he had not ceased to be a member of that force, or
- (b) where on ceasing to be such, he resumed service in or, as the case may be, exercised his right of reversion to some other force to which members of his former force had been transferred as mentioned in paragraph (2), as if he had been so transferred from his former force to that other force.

(5) In this regulation, "present force" and "former force" mean, respectively, the force first mentioned and that secondly mentioned in paragraph (1).

- (h) the circumstances in which a member of a police force may be placed on limited duties.

(2) In making a determination under paragraph (1)(a) the Secretary of State may confer on the chief officer discretion to fix the time at which a period commences for the purposes of the determination and may determine the conditions subject to which that discretion is to be exercised.

2) VARIABLE SHIFT ARRANGEMENTS

- a) A chief officer may, after consulting with the joint branch board and the members affected, allowing them at least 30 days to make representations and taking account of the likely effects of the new arrangements on their personal circumstances:

- i) announce that he intends to bring into operation variable shift arrangements for all or any particular class of members below the rank of inspector (below the rank of superintendent for part-time members); and
 - ii) bring the arrangements into operation not less than 30 days after the announcement.
- b) Variable shift arrangements must provide, for full-time members for whom they are in operation:

 - ii) for annual leave equivalent to that granted in accordance with regulation 33 and the Secretary of State's determination of the annual leave of members of police forces thereunder.

3) DUTY ROSTERS

- a) A chief officer shall cause to be published, in accordance with this determination, duty rosters for members of his force of the rank of constable or sergeant (and inspector and chief inspector in the case of part-time members) and, in the determinations made under the Police Regulations 2003:
 - i) a reference to a rostered rest day is to be construed, in relation to a member of a police force who is required to do duty on that day, as a reference to a day which according to the duty roster was, immediately before he was so required to do duty, to have been a rest day for the member; and
 - ii) a day off granted in lieu of a rostered rest day shall be treated as a rostered rest day.
- b) A chief officer shall cause each such roster to be drawn up and published, after full consultation with the Joint Branch Board, at intervals not exceeding 12 months and not later than one month before the date on which it starts.
- c) Each such roster shall set out, for at least three months (except one relating to a part-time member who has agreed with the chief officer on a different period) following the date on which it comes into force, in relation to each member of the force to which it relates:

 - ii) an interval between each of his rostered rest days not exceeding 7 days, unless in the case of a part-time member, a longer interval has been agreed between the member and the chief officer;
- unless the Joint Branch Board agrees otherwise, such agreement providing for an equivalent period of compensatory rest.
- f) Where, owing to the exigencies of duty, it is necessary to alter a duty roster, the officer responsible for making the alteration shall endeavour, so far as practicable, to avoid thereby requiring a member to do an additional daily period of duty or, in the case of a part-time member or a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, a shift, in circumstances where the conditions in sub-paragraph (e)(i) and (ii) would not be satisfied in relation thereto.
- g) Where a duty roster is altered in accordance with subparagraph f) and a member is required to do an additional daily period of duty or a shift in circumstances where the conditions in sub-paragraph (e)(i) and (ii) are not satisfied in relation thereto, that member shall be entitled to an equivalent period of compensatory rest.

4) PUBLIC HOLIDAYS, REST DAYS AND MONTHLY LEAVE DAYS

- a) Constables and Sergeants

 - ii) The provisions for compensation in lieu of public holidays and rostered rest days are such as are found in regulation 26 and the determination thereunder.

- iii) For the purposes of this determination and the determination made under regulation 26, a member of the rank of constable or sergeant may, with the approval of the chief officer, substitute a day which is not a public holiday within the meaning of regulation 3(1) of the Police Regulations 2003 for any day which is such a public holiday, with the exception of Christmas Day.
 - iv) A member shall give the chief officer notice of a proposed substitution under sub-paragraph (a)(iii) not less than two months before the first day of the leave year containing the public holiday for which a day is to be substituted.
 - v) The chief officer shall, subject to the exigencies of the duty, approve a proposed substitution under sub-paragraph (a)(iii).
 - vi) The chief officer shall prescribe—
 - 1. the manner in which notice is to be given under paragraph (a)(iv);
 - 2. the time within which a member is to be notified of the decision as to approval of a proposed substitution; and
 - 3. arrangements by which a member may propose a different date to be substituted for the public holiday, where the exigencies of duty prevent the chief officer from approving a proposed substitution.
 - vii) Where a proposed substitution has been approved under paragraph (a)(v) and the member later transfers to another police force, the substitution shall, subject to the exigencies of duty, continue to have effect in that other force.”.
- b) Inspectors and Chief Inspectors

 - ii) recalled to duty between two tours of duty (in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, two shifts) and travels to and from his home between tours (in the case of a member working variable shift arrangements, between shifts), or as the case may be, in consequence of his recall, (in this determination referred to as “relevant travelling”).

b) This paragraph applies to a part-time member where:

- i) a shift consists of two separate periods; or
- ii) he is recalled to duty between two shifts; and he travels to and from his home between those periods or, as the case may be, in consequence of his recall, (in this determination referred to as “relevant travelling”).

ba) This paragraph applies where a member of a police force who is held in reserve within the meaning of paragraph (11) of the determination made under regulation 34 (Annex U - Allowances) is required to travel other than during the member’s normal daily period of duty or (in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements) shift (in this determination referred to as “relevant travelling”).

c) In computing any period of overtime for the purposes of regulation 25 and the determination thereunder or any period of duty for the purpose of regulation 26 and the determination thereunder (save for the purposes of sub-paragraph 3(g) of the determination thereunder) the time occupied by such a member in relevant travelling, not exceeding such reasonable limit as may be fixed by the chief officer of police, shall be treated as a period of duty.

6) PART-TIME MEMBERS

 - i) This paragraph applies to every part-time member of a police force below the rank of superintendent
 - ii) The normal period of duty in every relevant period of a part-time member of a police force to whom this determination applies, which is to be performed in accordance with general arrangements made by the chief officer of police, is, subject to sub paragraph (v), the total number of hours determined by the chief officer with the agreement of the member at the time of his appointment.
 - iii) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (ii) a day of annual leave counts as a period of duty of 8 hours multiplied by the appropriate factor.
 - iv) The chief officer shall review a member’s normal period of duty at intervals of not more than 52 weeks, and in doing so shall have regard to the number of hours actually spent on duty during the interval preceding the review.
 - v) After a review under sub-paragraph (iv) or (vi):
 - (1) any number of hours different from that determined under sub-paragraph (ii) which was determined by the chief officer and agreed to by the member becomes the member’s normal period of duty, and
 - (2) if no different number was agreed to by the member, his normal period of duty is the number of hours determined on the last previous review, or where no such review has taken place, under sub-paragraph (ii).

- vi) In addition to any review required under sub-paragraph (v), a member or the chief officer may require a further review where there has been or is likely to be significant changes in the normal daily period of duty or in the circumstances of the member.

- x) Where a shift consists of two periods amounting in total to 5 hours or more and the member does not travel to and from his home between those periods, an interval for refreshment and rest shall normally be included at the beginning or end of one of them.
- b) For the purposes of this paragraph, in relation to a part-time member of a police force:
- i) the determined hours are the number of hours which the chief officer has determined as his normal period of duty in a relevant period,
 - ii) a relevant period is a period for which a duty roster relating to him has effect for the time being under paragraph 3, and
 - iii) the appropriate factor is A/B , where
 - A is the number of determined hours, and
 - B is 40 times the number of weeks in the relevant period.
- c) In relation to a member of a police force in a job share arrangement the appropriate factor is $\frac{1}{2}$.
- 7) a) In this determination and determinations made under regulations 25 and 33, "day", in relation to members of a police force, means a period of 24 hours commencing at such time or times as the chief officer shall fix and the chief officer may fix different times in relation to different groups of members.

ANNEX EE

DETERMINATION FOR REGULATION 22 and 28A

LIMITED DUTIES

1. This determination sets out the circumstances in which a member of a police force may be placed on limited duties, and the circumstances in which an element of pay may be deducted during periods when that member is carrying out adjusted duties.

2. The three categories of Limited Duties are defined as follows:

a. “Recuperative Duties” is defined as duties falling short of full deployment, undertaken by a police officer following an injury, accident, illness or medical incident, during which the officer adapts to and prepares for a return to full duties and the full hours for which they are paid, and is assessed to determine whether he or she is capable of making such a return.

NOTE: For clarity, recuperative duties should be viewed as a structured, time-limited, supportive and rehabilitative process.

b. “Adjusted Duties” is defined as duties falling short of full deployment, in respect of which workplace adjustments (including reasonable adjustments under the Equality Act 2010) have been made to overcome barriers to working. For an officer to be placed on adjusted duties, he/she must:

i. be attending work on a regular basis;

and

ii. be working for the full number of hours for which he/she is paid (in either a full time or part time substantive role).

c. “Management Restricted Duties” is defined as duties to which an officer is allocated in circumstances in which:

i. verifiable confidential or source sensitive information or intelligence has come to the notice of the Force that questions the suitability of an officer to continue in his or her current post; and/or

ii. serious concerns are raised which require management actions, both for the protection of individuals and the organisation;

In either case also that:

iii. criminal or misconduct proceedings are not warranted; and

iv. the chief constable has lost confidence in the officer continuing in their current role.

3. An officer who is ‘fully deployable’ for the purposes of this determination will generally demonstrate all the following core capabilities:

a. the ability to sit for reasonable periods, to write, read, use the telephone and to use (or learn to use) IT;

- b. the ability to run, walk reasonable distances, and stand for reasonable periods;
 - c. the ability to make decisions and report situations to others;
 - d. the ability to evaluate information and to record details;
 - e. the ability to exercise reasonable physical force in restraint and retention in custody;
 - f. the ability to understand, retain and explain facts and procedures;
 - g. the ability to work the full range of shifts.
4. For the purposes of this determination, 'substantive role' means:
- a. a role that exists in the organisational design of that Force and is funded;
and
 - b. a role into which an officer is posted.

Deployment component of the police officer X-factor ('X-factor')

5. The deployment component of X-factor is established as equivalent in value to:
- a. For constables:
 - 8% of the pay to which the member is entitled as a constable.
 - b. For all other ranks:
 - 8% of the pay to which the member is entitled in his/her current rank, capped at 8% of the maximum of constables' pay.
6. For the purposes of this determination, "pay" refers to rates as set out in Parts 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of Annex F of the determinations. For clarity, it does not include any additional allowances or other payments (for example: London weighting, CRTP, overtime or acting up allowance).
7. X-factor shall be calculated daily, for each day which the member has spent on adjusted duties. A day's pay for the purposes of this determination shall be calculated according to the determination at Annex M made under Regulation 30 (dividing by 7 the weekly rate).
8. For part time members, X-factor should be calculated on a pro-rata basis, taking into account the number of hours worked.

Allocation to adjusted duties

9. Triggers for officers to be placed on adjusted duties are as follows:
- a. Officer fails to recover to full duties following a period of recuperation;
 - b. Failure to pass fitness test or Personal Safety Training brings to light an underlying medical condition that makes adjusted duties appropriate;

- c. Medical review that comes about for some other reason.
10. It is for Chief Officers to define a process for allocating adjusted duties officers to suitable roles within the Force, according to the principles set out in current national guidance, and in compliance with their statutory duties under the Equality Act 2010, particularly in relation to officers with a disability within the meaning of that Act. In making the decision to allocate an officer to adjusted duties, account should be taken of any medical advice received by the force.
11. If a difference of opinion arises between the member and the Force in relation to such medical advice to place a member on adjusted duties where the difference of opinion relates to whether or not the member is “fully deployable”, the chief officer or delegated authority shall, within 28 days of the difference of opinion coming to light, arrange for the member to be examined by a different registered medical practitioner, appointed or approved by the chief officer. The second doctor’s opinion will be final.

NOTE: For the avoidance of doubt, it is likely that some officers with disabilities (as defined under the Equality Act 2010) will be fully deployable as defined in this determination and will not be suitable for Adjusted Duties.

Annual review of officers on adjusted duties and adjustments to pay

12. There will be an annual review of whether a member placed on adjusted duties should remain on adjusted duties. This review will take place 12 months after the member was placed on adjusted duties (the “12 month management review”), and on an annual basis thereafter.

Actions prior to the 12 month management review

13. After nine months on adjusted duties, the officer shall be notified in writing that should s/he remain on adjusted duty following assessment at the 12 month management review, s/he may be subject to the deduction from pay of the deployment component of X-factor.

The 12 month management review

14. The 12 month management review will constitute a “formal management review”, as described in current national guidance, undertaken with the individual concerned, and may involve a referral to the Force medical advisor(s).
15. The 12 month management review will include:
 - a. An assessment of whether the member is able, after workplace adjustments have been made, to discharge a substantive police role for the full duration of the hours for which he/she is paid;
 - b. An assessment of whether the member on adjusted duties can be accommodated without unreasonable detriment to overall Force resilience, as judged by the chief officer;and
 - c. Where it is concluded that the officer shall remain on adjusted duties and the Selected Medical Practitioner (SMP) does not consider as appropriate the possibility of permanent disablement, or permanent medical unfitness (as defined under the Police Pensions Regulations), the person or persons who have conducted the review shall make a recommendation to a delegated authority nominated by the chief officer of police (“delegated authority” is defined for the purposes of this determination as a person holding the rank of Assistant Chief Constable or equivalent or above) as to whether the member should:

- i. remain on adjusted duties;
- and
- ii. sustain a deduction from pay to the value of the X-factor.

NOTE: when deciding who will be responsible for decisions about deduction from pay, Forces should bear in mind that an appeal may subsequently be made to the chief officer of police. Therefore, to maintain an element of independence in the appeals process, there should be provision made by the Force for an appeal to be made to someone other than the person who made the initial decision to deduct ‘X-factor’.

Pay deductions

16. On receipt of the review panel’s recommendation, the chief officer of police, or delegated authority, shall use his/her discretion to decide whether or not an officer should sustain such a deduction from pay. In exercising his/her discretion, the chief officer of police or delegated authority must:
 - a. comply with equalities legislation;
 - b. Give consideration to the operational requirements of the Force at that time;
 - c. Consider each case individually and on its own merits, taking into account the relevant facts and circumstances of each;
 - d. Notify the officer in writing of their decision, giving one month’s notice of any deduction of the deployment component of the X-factor from pay for the subsequent period of time that the officer remains on Adjusted Duties.
17. Any deduction shall be calculated according to the officer’s rate of pay on the day immediately after one month’s notice has elapsed and shall be deducted in arrears on each pay day for each day of the previous pay period which the member has spent on adjusted duties.

Exercise of chief officer discretion in relation to pay deductions

18. The chief officer of police may in a particular case decide that the deployment component of the X-factor may be retained by the officer if one or more of the following circumstances are satisfied:
 - a. The range of roles to which the Force is able to deploy the officer is not significantly reduced;
 - b. To avoid manifest unfairness e.g. where fully fit officers are performing the same range of duties within a role as an officer on adjusted duties;
 - c. An officer is on adjusted duties solely as the result of an injury sustained or contracted in the course of having put themselves in harm’s way in the execution of their duty;

- d. Some other exceptional reason (what is considered an exceptional reason is to be determined locally at Force level)
19. If an officer has been referred to the Selected Medical Practitioner in relation to consideration of ill-health retirement¹ prior to or during the first 12 month review process, decisions about pay deductions shall not be made until the outcome of that referral is known. In relation to any such referrals made after the implementation of any pay deduction, any further decision about changes to pay (including X-factor) shall be stayed until the day immediately after the date when a decision is made by the chief officer of police to retain or retire the officer.

Appeals

20. The officer has the right of appeal to the chief officer of police in relation to the deduction of X-factor.
21. Allowable grounds for appeal are:
- a. Abuse of process;
 - b. Perverse decision.
22. Should the officer submit an appeal that is upheld, pay shall be reinstated, including any back pay as applicable.

Review of officers on adjusted duty after the conclusion of the initial 12 month review process

23. After the initial 12 month review, “formal management reviews” as described in current national guidance should take place on at least an annual basis, following the same format as the initial 12 month management review, including consideration of X-factor deduction. If there is any significant change in the circumstances of either the officer or the Force, a further review may be initiated at the request of either the officer or local managers at any time.
24. If the conclusion of any subsequent review is that deduction of X-factor is no longer appropriate, X-factor will be reinstated with effect from the date of the conclusion of the review.

¹ The period from the date of written referral until the date the chief officer of police makes the decision to retain or retire the officer.

REGULATION 23

Part 1.

GAIN FROM PROMOTION

- 1 When a member is promoted to a higher rank, the rate of pay payable to the member in the higher rank shall always be higher than the rate of pay the member would have received had he not been promoted and shall be set at a rate which is not less than the rate appropriate to the pay point which, in the higher rank, is immediately above the rate of pay the member would have been receiving but for his promotion.
- 2 For so long as the member continues to serve in the higher rank, he shall be paid at the rate identified in paragraph (1) until, in accordance with the terms of service appropriate to the member's new rank, a higher pay point becomes applicable.

Part 1A.

SUSPENSION OF INCREMENTAL PROGRESSION FOR CONSTABLES, SERGEANTS, INSPECTORS AND CHIEF INSPECTORS

- 1 Save as set out in the remaining paragraphs of this Part, no member in the rank of constable, sergeant, inspector or chief inspector shall move to a higher pay point in the relevant period.
- 2 A member who completes initial training in the relevant period shall move to the relevant pay point in the table in Part 2 (constables' pay with effect from 1st September 2010).
- 3 A member who completes two years' service as a constable in the relevant period shall move to pay point 2 in that table.
- 4 A constable on pay point 2 in that table who completes a further year's service in the relevant period shall move to the next pay point on doing so.
- 5 In this part "the relevant period" means the period from 1st April 2012 to 31st March 2014.

Part 1B.

Incremental progression through the pay scale to be dependent on performance for sergeants, inspectors and chief inspectors (from 1 April 2015) and for constables (from 1 April 2016)

Incremental progression

- Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon a member receiving a grade of 'achieved performance' (or the equivalent grade in a police force's own grading system, as determined by the Chief Constable) or above in their performance development review ("PDR") or alternative performance assessment process relating to the preceding period of 12 months' of their service from the anniversary of a member's end of year assessment.

- For the purposes of this determination, "PDR or alternative process", means an annual performance assessment process which meets minimum national performance standards and national standards of assessment set by the College of Policing, including an appeals process.
- In the absence of a PDR or alternative process which meets minimum national performance standards and national standards of assessment set by the College of Policing, a member will be assumed to have received a grade of 'achieved performance' (or the equivalent grade in a police force's own grading system, as determined by the Chief Constable).
- Members will be reassessed for pay progression annually. Members will progress through the pay scale at the anniversary of their appointment or promotion, if they are awarded (or assumed to be awarded) a grade of 'achieved performance' or above (or the equivalent grade in a police force's own grading system, as determined by the Chief Constable) in their PDR or alternative process.
- Increments will not be paid until formal completion, or assumed formal completion (pursuant to paragraph 3), of the PDR or alternative process. Assumed formal completion will be considered to have occurred on the anniversary of their appointment or promotion. Following such completion of the PDR or alternative process, the member's pay will progress to the next pay point backdated to the date of the due increment.
- Incremental progression will only be denied if the officer:
 - (a) is graded as 'not achieved' (or the equivalent grade in a police force's own grading system, as determined by the Chief Constable) in their PDR or alternative process; and
 - (b) is also subject to formal action within Stages 1, 2 or 3 of Unsatisfactory Performance Procedures under the Police (Performance) Regulations 2012 at the end of the 12 month period being assessed.
- Where the member meets the conditions in 6 (a) and 6 (b) above, but only starts to be subject to the formal action referred to in 6 (b) in the period of six weeks immediately prior to the end of the 12 month period being assessed, the Chief Constable has the discretion to permit incremental progression in the case of that member if the Chief Constable is of the view that the last six weeks of the PDR or alternative process year is not representative of the preceding 12 months' performance by the member.
- Where a member's appeal against their final PDR or alternative process grading is upheld, which means that the condition in paragraph 6 (a) is no longer met, pay will be reinstated at the higher rate, backdated to the date of the due increment.
- During transition to the new system, incremental progression will continue to apply in relation to any PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending on or before 31 March 2015 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

The pay point 3 on the constables' scale will be removed, to create a new 12-point pay scale. With effect from 1 April 2004, members should move sideways from the current scale in the second column to the fourth column in the table below. If there is a blank space, then members should move directly onto the next highest point. In practice, this will affect all members on the current pay point 3 (£23,298), who will move on to the new pay point 3 (£24,096).

Anomalies

To counteract the anomalies arising from both assimilation to the above new pay scale, and that implemented with effect from 1 April 2003, the incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change where indicated in the following table:

Member's start date	Incremental date
On or before 1 October 1991	No change
Between 2 October 1991 and 30 September 1992:	Change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1992 and 30 September 1993:	no change
Between 2 October 1993 and 30 September 1994:	change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1994 and 30 September 1999	no change

Between 2 October 1999 and 30 September 2000: change to 1 October from 2004

Post 2 October 2000: no change

Any member with a 1st October start date does not change. The above changes to incremental dates will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.

All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.

CONSTABLES' PAY ASSIMILATION PROCEDURE WITH EFFECT FROM 1 APRIL 2014

- (a) To counteract the anomalies which would have arisen from assimilation to the above new pay scale, implemented with effect from 1 April 2014, the incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change where indicated in the following table:

Members start date	Incremental date
Pre- 1 October 2004 starters:	no change
Starters between 2 October 2004 and 31 December 2004:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2005 and 30 September 2005:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 9 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 2 October 2005 and 31 December 2005:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2006 and 31 March 2006:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 8 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)

Post- 1 October 2007 starters	no change

- (b) There will be no change to incremental dates for any member with a 1st October start date (of any year).
- (c) The changes to incremental dates listed above in the table at paragraph a) will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.
- (d) All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.
- (e) Members who were eligible to progress to pay point 3 during the suspension of incremental progression could not accrue reckonable service on that pay point during the suspension period. Consequently, these members will move to pay point 4 on 1 April 2015 and this will be their new incremental date.

¹ This means that those who joined between 1 January and 30 September 2005 will move twice in 2015: firstly on their current incremental date and again on 1 October, which will become their new incremental date. This also applies to members who joined between 1 January and 31 March 2006 and 1 January and 31 March 2007.

CONSTABLES' PAY ASSIMILATION PROCEDURE WITH EFFECT FROM 1 APRIL 2014

- (a) To counteract the anomalies which would have arisen from assimilation to the above new pay scale, implemented with effect from 1 April 2014, the incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change where indicated in the following table:

Members start date	Incremental date
Pre- 1 October 2004 starters:	no change
Starters between 2 October 2004 and 31 December 2004:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2005 and 30 September 2005:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 9 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 2 October 2005 and 31 December 2005:	change to 1 October from 2015 and 31 December 2005:
Starters between 1 January 2006 and 31 March 2006:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 8 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 1 April 2006 and 30 September 2006;	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 2 October 2006 and 31 December 2006:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2007 and 31 March 2007:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 8 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 1 April 2007 and 30 September 2007:	Change to 1 October from 2015
Post- 1 October 2007 starters	no change

- (b) There will be no change to incremental dates for any member with a 1st October start date (of any year).
- (c) The changes to incremental dates listed above in the table at paragraph (a) will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.
- (d) All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.
- (e) Members who were eligible to progress to pay point 3 during the suspension of incremental progression could not accrue reckonable service on that pay point during the suspension period. Consequently, these members will move to pay point 4 on 1 April 2015 and this will be their new incremental date.

¹ This means that those who joined between 1 January and 30 September 2005 will move twice in 2015: firstly on their current incremental date and again on 1 October, which will become their new incremental date. This also applies to members who joined between 1 January and 31 March 2006 and 1 January and 31 March 2007.

CONSTABLES' PAY SCALE - ASSIMILATION PROCEDURE 2003 - 2005

1. The former constables' pay scale of fifteen points has been reduced by four points over two years from April 2003.
2. With effect from 1 April 2003 two points were removed, namely, the former 8 and 10 years' service points, to create a new 13-point pay scale.
3. With effect from 1 April 2004, the 3 years' service point on the constables' scale was removed, to create a new 12-point pay scale.
4. With effect from 1 April 2005 the 9 years' service point as at 31 March 2004 has been removed to create a new 11-point pay scale, the top point of which will be reached in ten years.
5. With effect from 1 April 2005, members who were on the former 9 years service point should be placed on the new 9 years service point and those on the former 10 years service point should be placed on the new 10 years service point. Members on the former 11 years service point should be placed on the new 10 years service point.

Anomalies

6. Anomalies will arise with this assimilation method whereby some officers will be overtaken in the pay scales by other officers recruited up to a year later, due to the inter-relationship between individuals' incremental dates and the effective dates of implementation of the new pay scales.
7. To counteract these anomalies arising from both assimilation to the above new pay scale, and that implemented with effect from 1 April 2003, the following changes to certain members' incremental dates will apply. The incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change in accordance with the following table:

Officer's start date	Incremental date
Pre-1 October 1991	no change
Between 2 October 1991 and 30 September 1992:	change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1992 and 30 September 1993:	no change
Between 2 October 1993 and 30 September 1994:	change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1994 and 30 September 1999:	no change
Between 2 October 1999 and 30 September 2000:	change to 1 October from 2004
Post-2 October 2000:	no change

8. A member with a 1st October start date does not change. The above changes to incremental dates will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.
9. All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.

Anomalies did not in fact arise for those members promoted to the rank between 2 October 2001 and 30 September 2002 who had 12 or more years' reckonable service as a constable. Therefore, such members promoted to the rank between 1 April 2002 and 30 September 2002 shall, with retrospective effect, have their previous increment dates reinstated.

4. Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 as at Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 1A. Those sergeants frozen at points 1, 2 or 3 during the suspension of incremental progression do not change incremental dates.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the scales will be according to the individual's PDR rating. Those rated as competent will receive one increment. Those rated as exceptional will receive a double increment. Those rated as not yet competent will receive no increment.

Those on the penultimate point of their scale who are rated as exceptional will receive a one-off non-pensionable payment equivalent to the second increment in addition to proceeding to the top of the pay scale. This payment will be paid as a single lump sum.

Incremental progression and the award of non-pensionable payments under the preceding paragraphs is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows. Those paragraphs continue to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

Protected pay arrangements with effect from 1 January 2002 for superintendents appointed to range 2 posts prior to 1st January 2002 and not promoted to Chief Superintendent are set out at Part 6(ii).

Central Service Posts

Those members of temporary Chief Superintendent rank on central service prior to 1st September 1994, and still on central service after that date should, in common with those appointed onto central service from 1st September 1994, suffer no worsening in their pay when they return to their parent force.

Performance-related Bonus

Those who have been at the top of their pay scale for at least twelve months will be eligible for a performance-related bonus, if they are rated as exceptional performers in their PDR. This bonus will amount to 5% of pensionable pay at the time of the performance review. It will be non-pensionable. It will be paid as a single lump sum.

The award of performance-related bonuses under the preceding paragraph is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows:

- a) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any bonus being awarded by that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to the full bonus under the preceding paragraph.
- b) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year beginning before 1 April 2012 and ending after that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to a sum calculated by multiplying the full bonus under the preceding paragraph by $N/12$, where N is the number of full months in the period beginning with the start of the reporting year and ending on 31 March 2012.

SUPERINTENDENTS' PAY for those holding the rank of Superintendent on or after 1 September 2013

Pay point	With effect from 1 September 2013 (existing pay scale)	With effect from 1 April 2014 (new pay scale)
1	£62,922	£62,922
2	£65,517	£66,210
3	£68,112	£69,669
4	£70,716	£74,322
5	£73,311

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 under a determination made under Regulation 24 and inserted in Annex F - Part 6 (i) under the heading 'Incremental Progression. Members could not accrue reckonable service for the purposes of pay during the suspension period. The meaning of 'reckonable service' for the purposes of pay is set out under Police Regulations 2003.

Transition to the new pay scale will take place as follows:

1) Superintendents promoted on or after 1 April 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or after 1 April 2014 will join the new 4 point pay scale on the date of their promotion. Incremental progression will follow upon completion of twelve months' reckonable service on each pay point (usually the anniversary of a member's promotion).

2) Superintendents promoted on or before 31 March 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or before 31 March 2014 will remain on the existing pay scale. They will move to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) no later than the point at which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period beginning on 1 April 2016 and ending on 31 March 2017.

The following assimilation arrangements will apply to their transition to the new pay scale:

a) Superintendents on pay points 1 to 4 of the existing pay scale at 1 April 2014

- i. Members will progress to the next point on the existing pay scale upon completion of twelve months' reckonable service at a pay point. For example, a member who attained pay point 3 of the existing pay scale on September 2011 will move to pay point 4 of the same scale on 1 September 2014 and pay point 5 on 1 September 2015. The member will then move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of the scale) on 1 September 2016.
- ii. Members who attained pay point 4 of the existing pay scale prior to the commencement of the freeze on incremental progression will move to pay point 5 of the same scale on completion of twelve months reckonable service at that pay point. Upon completion of twelve months reckonable service on pay point 5, these members will move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale). For example, a member who attained pay point 4 of the existing scale on 1 May 2011 will progress to pay point 5 of the same scale on 1 May 2014 and pay point 4 of the new scale on 1 May 2015.
- iii. All members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent between 1 April 2012 and 31 March 2014 (inclusive) will move to pay point 2 on 1 April 2015, upon completion of twelve months reckonable service. With effect from 1 April 2015, the date for incremental progression for these officers in subsequent years will become 1 April.
- iv. All members who remain on the existing pay scale will, regardless of their length of service in the rank, transfer to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) no later than the date upon which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period from 1 April 2016. As a result of this, some anomalies will arise whereby some members will be-pass one or more of the intermediate pay points of both the existing and the new pay scales. For example, a member promoted on 1 April 2012 will progress to pay point 2 of the existing scale on 1 April 2015 and pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2016.

b) Superintendents currently on pay point 5 of the existing scale

- i. Members will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2014, provided they have already completed twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point.
- ii. Members who, on 1 April 2014, have yet to complete twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point will progress to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) once they have done so. For example, a member who attained pay point 5 of the existing pay scale on 1 September 2011 will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 September 2014.

It is recognised that the introduction of this new pay scale and the assimilation procedure outlined above will result in some Superintendents being overtaken by other officers with shorter service in the rank. Such anomalies will be particularly apparent although time limited, for those members who were promoted to the rank during the suspension of incremental progression.

Temporary service in a higher rank which qualifies as reckonable service for the purposes of pay should be taken into account when determining pay progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Double increments

Double increments are abolished and will cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014.

Performance - related bonus payments

Performance - related bonus payments are abolished and will cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014.

Reference to the section included in previous amendments to this determination, entitled 'Superintendent Range 2 - not promoted to Chief Superintendent' has been removed, since this pay range has become obsolete.

4	£70,713	£71,421	£74,322	£75,066
5	£73,311	£74,043

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 under a determination made under Regulation 24 and inserted in Annex F - Part 6 (i) under the heading 'Incremental Progression. Members could not accrue reckonable service for the purposes of pay during the suspension period. The meaning of 'reckonable service' for the purposes of pay is set out under Police Regulations 2003.

Transition to the new pay scale will take place as follows:

1) Superintendents promoted on or after 1 April 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or after 1 April 2014 will join the new four point pay scale on the date of their promotion. Incremental progression will follow upon completion of twelve months' reckonable service on each pay point (usually the anniversary of a member's promotion).

2) Superintendents promoted on or before 31 March 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or before 31 March 2014 will remain on the five point pay scale. They will move to pay point 4 of the new four point pay scale (top of scale) no later than the point at which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period beginning on 1 April 2016 and ending on 31 March 2017.

The following assimilation arrangements will apply to their transition to the new four point pay scale:

a) Superintendents on pay points 1 to 4 of the five point pay scale at 1 April 2014

- i) Members will progress to the next point on the five point pay scale upon completion of twelve months' reckonable service at a pay point. For example, a member who attained pay point 3 of the existing pay scale on 1 September 2011 will move to pay point 4 of the same scale on 1 September 2014 and pay point 5 on 1 September 2015. The member will then move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) on 1 September 2016.
- ii) Members who attained pay point 4 of the five point pay scale prior to the commencement of the freeze on incremental progression will move to pay point 5 of the same scale on completion of twelve months reckonable service at that pay point. Upon completion of twelve months reckonable service on pay point 5, these members will move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale). For example, a member who attained pay point 4 of the five point scale on 1 May 2011 will progress to pay point 5 of the same scale on 1 May 2014 and pay point 4 of the new scale on 1 May 2015.
- iii) All members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent between 1 April 2012 and 31 March 2014 (inclusive) will move to pay point 2 on 1 April 2015, upon completion of twelve months reckonable service. With effect from 1 April 2015, the date for incremental progression for these officers in subsequent years will become 1 April.
- iv) All members who remain on the five point pay scale will, regardless of their length of service in the rank, transfer to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) no later than the date upon which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period from 1 April 2016. As a result of this, some anomalies will arise whereby some members will by-pass one or more of the intermediate pay points of both the five point and the new four point pay scales. For example, a member promoted on 1 April 2012 will progress to pay point 2 of the five point scale on 1 April 2015 and pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2016.

b) Superintendents currently on pay point 5 of the five point scale

- i) Members will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2014, provided they have already completed twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point.
- ii) Members who, on 1 April 2014, have yet to complete twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point will progress to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) once they have done so. For example, a member who attained pay point 5 of the five point pay scale on 1 September 2011 will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 September 2014.

It is recognised that the introduction of this new pay scale and the assimilation procedure outlined above will result in some Superintendents being overtaken by other officers with shorter service in the rank. Such anomalies will be particularly apparent although time limited, for those members who were promoted to the rank during the suspension of incremental progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Note:

Performance related bonus payments of double increments were suspended for all superintending ranks for a two year period commencing 1 April 2012 and are abolished with effect from 1 April 2014.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the scales will be according to the individual's PDR rating. Those rated as competent will receive one increment. Those rated as exceptional will receive a double increment. Those rated as not yet competent will receive no increment.

Those on the penultimate point of their scale who are rated as exceptional will receive a one-off non-pensionable payment equivalent to the second increment in addition to proceeding to the top of the pay scale. This payment will be paid as a single lump sum.

Incremental progression and the award of non-pensionable payments under the preceding paragraphs is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows. Those paragraphs continue to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

Central Service Posts

Those members of temporary Chief Superintendent rank on central service prior to 1st September 1994, and still on central service after that date should, in common with those appointed onto central service from 1st September 1994, suffer no worsening in their pay when they return to their parent force.

Performance-related Bonus

Those who have been at the top of their pay scale for at least twelve months will be eligible for a performance-related bonus, if they are rated as exceptional performers in their PDR. This bonus will amount to 5% of pensionable pay at the time of the performance review. It will be non-pensionable. It will be paid as a single lump sum.

Former Superintendent Range 2s not promoted to Chief Superintendent, who have been at the maximum of the protected scale for at least twelve months, will also be eligible for this payment

The award of performance-related bonuses under the preceding paragraph is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows:

- a) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any bonus being awarded by that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to the full bonus under the preceding paragraph.
- b) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year beginning before 1 April 2012 and ending after that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to a sum calculated by multiplying the full bonus under the preceding paragraph by $N/12$, where N is the number of full months in the period beginning with the start of the reporting year and ending on 31 March 2012.

Superintendents promoted from the maximum of their pay scale will start on the second point of the Chief Superintendents' scale, if in receipt of the performance related bonus at their most recent PDR while on the maximum of the Superintendents' scale.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the scales will be according to the individual's PDR rating. Those rated as competent will receive one increment. Those rated as exceptional will receive a double increment. Those rated as not yet competent will receive no increment.

Those on the penultimate point of their scale who are rated as exceptional will receive a one-off non-pensionable payment equivalent to the second increment in addition to proceeding to the top of the pay scale. This payment will be paid as a single lump sum.

Incremental progression and the award of non-pensionable payments under the preceding paragraphs is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows. Those paragraphs continue to apply in relation to a PDR rating in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

Central Service Posts

Those members of temporary Chief Superintendent rank on central service prior to 1st September 1994, and still on central service after that date should, in common with those appointed onto central service from 1st September 1994, suffer no worsening in their pay when they return to their parent force.

Performance-related Bonus

Those who have been at the top of their pay scale for at least twelve months will be eligible for a performance-related bonus, if they are rated as exceptional performers in their PDR. This bonus will amount to 5% of pensionable pay at the time of the performance review. It will be non-pensionable. It will be paid as a single lump sum.

The award of performance-related bonuses under the preceding paragraph is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows:

- a) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any bonus being awarded by that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to the full bonus under the preceding paragraph.
- b) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year beginning before 1 April 2012 and ending after that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to a sum calculated by multiplying the full bonus under the preceding paragraph by $N/12$, where N is the number of full months in the period beginning with the start of the reporting year and ending on 31 March 2012.

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENTS' PAY for those holding the rank of Chief Superintendent on or after 1 September 2013

Pay point	With effect from 1 September 2013 (existing pay scale)	Pay scale with effect from 1 April 2014 (new pay scale)
1	£75,138	£77,988
2	£77,274	£80,628
3	£79,422	£82,272

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 under a determination made under Regulation 24 and inserted in Annex F – Part 6 (ii) under the heading ‘Incremental Progression. Members could not accrue reckonable service for the purposes of pay during the suspension period. The meaning of ‘reckonable service’ for the purposes of pay is set out under Police Regulations 2003.

Transition to the new pay scale will take place as follows:

1) Chief Superintendents promoted on or after 1 April 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Chief Superintendent on or after 1 April 2014 will join the new pay scale on their date of promotion. Incremental progression will follow upon completion of twelve months reckonable service on each pay point (usually the anniversary of a member’s promotion).

2) Chief Superintendents promoted on or before 31 March 2014

Chief Superintendents promoted to the rank either temporarily or substantively on or before 31 March 2014 will move to the new pay scale on 1 April 2014 at their current pay point. The following assimilation arrangement will apply:

- i. Those members who have not already attained pay point 3 (top of scale) by 31 March 2014 will adopt a new incremental progression date of 1 April with effect from 1 April 2014, regardless of their date of promotion to the rank. This means that some members will spend longer than twelve months on their current pay point. For example, if a member was due to move from pay point 2 to pay point 3 on 5 April 2014, that member will receive an initial increase in pay on 1 April 2014 due to the introduction of the new pay scale, but will not then progress to pay point 3 until 1 April 2015.
- ii. For the avoidance of doubt, if, by virtue of having completed twelve months’ reckonable service on their current pay point, a member’s next increment falls due on 1 April 2014, that member will progress to the next pay point of the new scale on this date. This will prevent such members experiencing the equivalent of an additional twelve months' 'freeze' on incremental progression.

Temporary service in a higher rank which qualifies as reckonable service for the purposes of pay should be taken into account when determining pay progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Double increments

Double increments are abolished and will cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014.

Performance-related bonus payments

Performance-related bonus payments are abolished and will cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014.

The section included in previous amendments to this determination, entitled 'Central Service Posts' has been removed because its application has become obsolete.

Note:

Performance-related bonus payments and the payment of double increments were suspended for all Superintending ranks for a two year period commencing 1 April 2012 and are abolished with effect from 1 April 2014. Post-Related Allowances remained payable to eligible Chief Superintendents throughout the suspension of incremental progression and will also cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014, as at Annex U (9A) made under regulation 34 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Police Regulations 2003). The abolition of PRAs, PRBs, and double increments shall take effect at the same time as the new pay scales are introduced with effect from 1 April 2014.

- i. Those members who have not already attained pay point 3 (top of scale) by 31 March 2014 will adopt a new incremental progression date of 1 April with effect from 1 April 2014, regardless of their date of promotion to the rank. This means that some members will spend longer than twelve months on their current pay point. For example, if a member was due to move from pay point 2 to pay point 3 on 5 April 2014, that member will receive an initial increase in pay on 1 April 2014 due to the introduction of the new pay scale, but will not then progress to pay point 3 until 1 April 2015.
- ii. For the avoidance of doubt, if, by virtue of having complete twelve month's reckonable service on their current pay point, a member's next increment falls due on 1 April 2014, that member will progress to the next pay point of the new scale on this date. This will prevent such members experiencing the equivalent of an additional twelve months' 'freeze' on incremental progression.

Temporary service in a higher rank which qualifies as reckonable service for the purposes of pay should be taken into account when determining pay progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Note:

Performance-related bonus payments and the payment of double increments were suspended for all Superintending ranks for a two year period commencing 1 April 2012 and are abolished with effect from 1 April 2014. Post-Related Allowances remained payable to eligible Chief Superintendents throughout the suspension of incremental progression and will also cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014, as at Annex U (9A) made under regulation 34 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Police Regulations 2003). The abolition of PRAs, PRBs, and double increments shall take effect at the same time as the new pay scales are introduced with effect from 1 April 2004.

- ii) receives not less than 15 days' notice of the requirement, shall be granted another free day in lieu, which shall be notified to him within 4 days of notification of the requirement.

d) This sub-paragraph applies where:

- e) Where sub-paragraph (d) applies:
- i) if the member was on duty for more than 8 hours on the free day and for more than 40 hours (in addition to any hours on a rostered rest day or public holiday for which an allowance fell to be granted under this determination) during the week in which the free day occurred, he is entitled to an allowance at the rate of one twelfth of an hour's pay for each completed period of 15 minutes of duty done on the free day, and
 - ii) in any other case, he is entitled to time off equal to the total length of those periods.
- f) Where:
- i) a member is required to do duty on a free day, and
 - ii) he receives less than 15 days' notice of the requirement,
- but sub-paragraph (d)(iii) does not apply, he is entitled to an allowance at the appropriate rest-day rate.
- g) In the case of a part-time member of a police force of the rank of constable or sergeant working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, the number of hours on duty shall for the purposes of sub-paragraph (e)(i) be determined by adding together:
- i) the average number of hours the member is contracted to work in the week in which the free day occurred;
 - ii) the number of hours, if any, the member worked on any rest day in that week; and
 - iii) the number of hours (if any) the member worked on any public holiday within that period.
- h) A member who is required to do duty on a free day may within 28 days of that day elect to receive:
- i) in lieu of an allowance under sub-paragraph (e)(i), time off equal to one and one third times, and
 - ii) in lieu of an allowance under sub-paragraph (f), time off equal to one and a half times,
- the period of completed quarters of an hour of duty done on the free day.
- i) Any entitlement of a member to an allowance for rest day, public holiday or free day working in respect of any day is in addition to any payments due to that member for that day in accordance with regulation 24 (pay) and the determination thereunder.

- j) For the purposes of regulation 24(1)(pay) and the determination thereunder:
 - i) a day's leave allowed under paragraph (4)(a)(i) of the determination under regulation 22 and a day off granted under paragraph (1)(d) above or under paragraph (3)(j) below in respect of a public holiday each count as a period of duty of 8 hours multiplied by the appropriate factor, and
 - ii) so much of any time off granted under sub-paragraph (h) or paragraph (1)(f) above as exceeds the time spent on duty on the public holiday, rest day or free day counts as time spent on duty.

3) FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS DETERMINATION:

- a) a member of a police force who is paid a dog handler's allowance shall not be treated as required to do duty by reason only of his being required to care for the dog;
- b) "a day's pay" means a week's pay at the rate at which the member was paid on the day in question divided by five;
- c) "the appropriate rate" for a full-time constable or sergeant means a sixteenth of a day's pay for each completed 15 minutes of duty done on a public holiday;

The only exception to this is where a period of not more than one hour of duty on a rostered rest day or, for a part-time member, a free day immediately follows a normal daily period of duty (or, in the case of a part-time member or a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, a rostered shift). In this instance the period of not more than one hour of duty counts as the number of period of 15 minutes actually completed.

- i) where a member is required to do duty on a public holiday or on a rostered rest day or, for a part-time member, a free day, his period of duty shall include (except for the purposes of sub paragraph (h) above) the time occupied by him in going to and returning from his place of duty, not exceeding such reasonable limit as may be fixed by the chief officer, save that, for the purposes of this sub-paragraph, there shall be disregarded any period of time so occupied:

 - ii) a relevant period is a period for which a duty roster relating to him has effect for the time being under paragraph 3 of Annex E, and

 - A is the number of determined hours, and
 - B is 40 times the number of weeks in the relevant period.

- j) Where in any year a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user's rate but the period of authorised use is a fraction only of that year, sub paragraph (e)(iii) shall have effect as if for the reference to the basic mileage there were substituted a reference to the corresponding fraction of that mileage; and for the purposes of this paragraph the monthly rate of the fixed element of such an allowance so payable shall be taken to be a twelfth of the annual rate.
- k) The amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable at the casual user's rate shall in any year be an amount calculated in relation to the mileage of authorised use in that year at the rate specified in sub-paragraph (g) by reference to that mileage and the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question, except that where the amount of the allowance would be less if it were calculated at the essential user's rate, it shall be of an amount calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (e).

- i) in its application to a chief officer of police, as if every power conferred on the chief officer; and

 - i) shall either reimburse the reasonably incurred cost of removal or carry out the removal;
 - ii) shall, where the member was the owner of his former home, reimburse expenses reasonably incurred by him -

 - (1) he was the owner of his former home, or
 - (2) after consulting the chief officer of police, is satisfied that he could neither have been provided with a suitable house or quarters nor have been reasonably expected to find suitable rented accommodation within a reasonable distance of his normal place of duty, so, however, that where the chief officer of police is of the opinion that the member could have acquired a suitable home for a consideration less than that actually paid, they may restrict the reimbursement of expenses directly related to the consideration paid by him to expenses which would have been reasonably incurred had he paid that lesser consideration;

 - iv) shall reimburse the member payments made by him to meet relevant liabilities in respect of the first 26 weeks following the move and may, if they think fit, reimburse him such payments in respect of such further period as they may determine so, however, that where the chief officer of police is of the opinion that the member has not taken all reasonable steps to reduce or terminate his liability to make such payments as aforesaid they may restrict the reimbursement to payments which the member would have been liable to make had he taken all such steps; and

- v) shall reimburse tax liabilities incurred by the member as a consequence of payments made by the chief officer of police under this sub-paragraph.
- b) Sub-paragraph (a) -
- i) applies where the member moves his home on joining the force in the rank of assistant chief constable or a higher rank, and
 - ii) otherwise applies with the exception of sub-paragraph (a)(v) where the member moves his home, except as a consequence of joining the force otherwise than on being statutorily transferred thereto, and the removal is, in the opinion of the chief officer of police, due to the exigencies of police duty or is made at the request of the chief officer of police and is, in his opinion, in the interests of the efficiency of the force.

- i) liabilities in respect of mortgage interest or rent payable in connection with his former home; and
 - ii) in respect of any days in respect of which he is liable to pay council tax in respect of his former home, the amount by which that tax and any council tax he is liable to pay in respect of his new home exceeds the council tax that he would have been liable to pay in respect of his former home if he had not moved from it.
- ca) Where a member of a police force moves his home in consequence of his voluntarily transferring from one force to another, otherwise than in circumstances to which sub-paragraph (b) applies, the chief officer of police of the force to which he transfers -
- i) may either reimburse the reasonable cost of removal or carry out the removal;
 - ii) may, in the circumstances mentioned in sub-paragraph (a)(ii), reimburse the expenses there mentioned;
 - iii) may, in the circumstances and subject to the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (a)(iii), reimburse the expenses there mentioned;
 - iv) may, subject to the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (a)(iv), reimburse the expenses there mentioned.
- d) Where the cost of removal is reimbursed or the removal is carried out by the chief officer of police under sub-paragraph (a) or (ca) the chief officer of police shall reimburse
- i) an item of expenditure incidental to the move and not otherwise covered in this determination if the member can satisfy the chief officer of police of the necessity of the expenditure.

- ii) where he satisfies the chief officer of police that, in consequence of the move, he has failed to benefit, in whole or in part, from expenditure reasonably incurred by him prior to the move (other than such payments as are referred to in sub paragraph (a)(iv)), the whole or the proportionate part of that expenditure so far as it is not recoverable by him.
- da) Where a member of a police force has been requested by the chief officer of police, in the interests of the efficiency of the force, to move his home, and -
- i) the member has, in consequence, in connection with the contemplated disposal of his home and acquisition of a new home, incurred any expenses; and
 - ii) he would, if he had moved his home, have been reimbursed those expenses by the local policing body in pursuance of sub-paragraph (a)(i) or (iii); but
 - iii) in consequence of a subsequent decision of the chief officer of police, the member does not in fact move his home,
- he shall be entitled, notwithstanding that he has not moved his home, to be reimbursed those expenses by the chief officer of police.
- e) To qualify for reimbursement, an item of removal expenditure must be necessary, reasonable and backed by a receipt.
- f) In this determination -
- i) any reference to an owner of any property is a reference to an occupier thereof whose interest therein is either a freehold interest or a leasehold interest which is neither a yearly or shorter tenancy nor a furnished tenancy, and
 - ii) any reference to expenses incurred in connection with the disposal or acquisition of any property shall be construed as including, in particular, estate agent's, auctioneer's, surveyor's and solicitor's fees, stamp duty and expenses in connection with the redemption, transfer or taking out of a mortgage; and any reference to expenses incurred in connection with the acquisition of any property shall be construed as also including expenses in connection with the contemplated acquisition of a property other than that acquired.
- g) This determination shall have effect -
- i) in its application to a chief officer of police, as if every reference to the chief officer; and

- a) When a member of a police force is necessarily prevented in the course of a tour of duty from obtaining a meal in his usual way, he shall be reimbursed the difference between the meal he then obtains and the meal he usually takes in the course of that tour of duty, provided that the additional expenditure is reasonable and backed by a receipt.
- b) When a member of a police force is retained on duty beyond his normal daily period of duty, he shall be reimbursed the cost of any meal he then necessarily obtains provided that expenditure is reasonable and backed by a receipt.
- c) A member of a police force shall be reimbursed accommodation expenses necessarily incurred in connection with duty away from his usual place of duty, or necessary because he has been retained on duty beyond his normal daily period of duty provided that the expenditure is reasonable and backed by a receipt.
- d) The usual place of duty for this purpose is the police establishment in which the member is stationed. The chief officer shall determine the date at which a member on duty away from his usual establishment becomes for the time being stationed at the place where he is temporarily on duty.
- e) A member of a police force shall, if he requests, be given an advance to cover, as far as practicable, probable expenses of duty away from his usual place of duty.

B is the aggregate amount for the time being of any allowances that are so payable to those members.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation the notional amount for the time being of an allowance is the amount that would for the time being be payable if the part-time member were a full-time member."

- (b) received an allowance referred to in the determinations made by the Secretary of State under regulation 34(1) as a London Allowance or a South East England Allowance in respect of the relevant period.

(2) The annual rate of a replacement allowance to which this paragraph applies shall be reduced -

(a) in the case of a member who received a London Allowance, by an amount calculated by the formula $A - B$, where -

(i) A is the annual rate at which the London Allowance was paid to the member; and
