

Our lawyers have supported Police Federation members for over 60 years...

Slater and Gordon provides a suite of tailored legal services to officers both on and off-duty. We're specialists in Police Federation legal advice and understand the intricacies of police work.

So, whenever you need us, we're ready to help.

Partnership timeline

Each year Slater and Gordon works on a large number of personal injury and employment matters for Police Federation Members nationwide.

Legal services

As a member of the Police Federation, you'll have access to a range of work-related legal benefits through your membership. Our team of specialist police law lawyers are ready to help whenever you need us, with expert advice and assistance for any incident that may occur whilst on duty, including:

Employment law

We're committed to protecting police officers' rights at work, and we advise Police Federation members on all relevant areas of employment law.

This highly specialist area not only requires extensive technical legal knowledge, but also an in-depth understanding of police work and the wider issues that affect police officers at work. Our long history working with the Police Federation gives us the experience and understanding needed to best support you.

Contact your local branch board in the first instance for more information.

Personal injury services

Slater and Gordon's service to members covers all non-RTA related personal injury claims, both on and off duty. Cover also extends to members of your family injured in the same or separate incidents.

Our expert personal injury lawyers have extensive knowledge of the unique losses that can affect police officers injured in the line of duty, and we work to recover these as part of your compensation.

We're experienced in helping officers in all areas of personal injury, so if you've suffered a personal injury, either on or off duty, contact your local branch board in the first instance for more information.

We also provide you and your immediate family with access to a range of legal services outside the workplace through your Police Federation membership, including:

Your personal injury claim won't cost you or the Police Federation anything - even if the claim is unsuccessful. S+G takes all the risk.

If your claim is successful, you'll retain 100% of your damages.

Don't forget, you can name Slater and Gordon on your CI form as your preferred law firm to access our personal injury experts.

Family law

We understand that police work can put extraordinary pressures on family life. Our specialist lawyers are here to help assist you through a wide range of family law issues - from divorce and childcare, right through to police pensions on divorce and cohabitation.

Police Federation members can contact us directly for a free initial consultation. We offer discounted rates and fixed fees to all members.

To speak with one of our family lawyers, or to book your free consultation, simply call us on 0330 107 6484.

Wills, trusts and estates

We offer discounted services to members for wills, trusts and probate services, including a FREE ONLINE WILL SERVICE.

As required, our team of specialist lawyers will take the time to understand your needs and suggest innovative, tailored solutions to safeguard your assets and your family's future.

Call us now on 0330 107 6484

With over 2,000 colleagues nationwide, our key experts have been handling Police Federation cases for over 60 years. They include:

Edward Cooper
Employment

“Edward has a practice encompassing industrial relations and trade union law. He is experienced in a variety of contentious employment matters including equal pay claims. He is very knowledgeable and experienced; his strengths include quick turnaround time and detailed, easy-to-understand advice, a client focused attitude and deep understanding of the trade union movement.”

Chambers and Partners 2021

Matthew Tomlinson
Personal Injury and Industrial Disease

“Matthew is experienced in handling complex, catastrophic and serious injury claims involving spinal injury, amputations, psychological injury and fatal cases.”

Sources say:

“He is very thorough and logical in his preparation, always has a case plan and always keeps it updated, so things are never missed.”

Chambers and Partners 2021

Georgina Chase
Family

“Georgina is a Principal Lawyer specialising in all aspects of Family Law, in particular financial settlements on divorce; including those involving businesses, trusts, high value pensions and foreign property...Georgina has extensive knowledge of Children Act Proceedings and regularly advises on arrangements for children post separation... She is known for her professionalism, approachable nature and attention to detail.”

The Legal 500

Don't forget your FREE online will!

At the checkout, enter your force discount code. This is available from your branch board or on the Slater and Gordon website.

For more information on the services available to you visit slaterandgordon.co.uk

